AC/DC (stylized as AC↵DC) are an Australian rock band formed in Sydney in 1973 by Scottish-born brothers Malcolm and Angus Young. Although their music has been variously described as hard rock, blues rock, and heavy metal, the band themselves call it simply "rock and roll".. AC/DC underwent several line-up changes before releasing their first album, High Voltage, in 1975.

Jesse Fink's book biography mainly covers the last 3 years of his life, when AC/DC had conquered Australia, were making an impact in the U.K., but were struggling to make inroads into the USA. As per usual with AC/DC there is no cooperation from the band themselves, so most of the accounts come from former associates and Bon's exes.
