365 Days of Crochet Tuesday, 8 August 2017. So I worked some more on the vest yesterday and I got the back done. Or at least I thought I had. Looking at the pattern again, I realized that I messed up. The front and back are supposed to be made joined at the shoulder, and only the sides need to be flipped over. Instead I made this one solid ...

As my 365 Days of Granny Squares has progressed, I have accumulated boxes of the completed squares with the intent to make blankets and various projects from all this hard work. My first endeavor was this Kaleidoscope Garden Afghan. Named for the variety of colors and the use of the 3-D floral squares in the center of the blanket, this piece is a great beginning to this yearlong project.
